PRINCE ENDS FIRST LAP OF RETURN TRIP

Reaches Dar-es-salam From Where He Will Board Warship

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The $150 a day kip was paid by the king's physician.

"The prince paid a fair day, with some other allowances conditions unchanged."

DAR-ES-SALAM, Tanganyika, Nov. 28.—The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Gloucester, who had been staying at Dar-es-salam, were due to be back in London today, according to a telegram sent by the Prince of Wales at Dodoma, Tanganyika, saying:

"I will return to England with my brother as soon as possible returning to England as soon as possible."

It was understood that the prince had decided to return to England on his own initiative and that it was not the result of any message recalling him to London.

DAR-ES-SALAM, Tanganyika, Nov. 28.—The Prince of Wales is expected to arrive here again in October. He will immediately board the "HMS Gloucester," which is eventually transferring to the cruiser "HMS Exeter" to take him to London.

The prince travelled by special train from Dodoma after notifying his mother, Baldwin in London, that he would be returning to England as soon as possible.

The prince, accompanied by the Duke of Gloucester, will join the Prince of Wales at Sandringham.

The two parted some weeks ago in the course of their hunting tour down Africa.

Paid Quiet Night

LONDON, Nov. 28.—A letter from the king's physician, Dr. J. H. Penn, submitted to the cabinet said that His Majesty was suffering from influenza.

The letter said that the king had been ill for a week.

In the letter, the king said:

"I am sorry to say that the letter said, due to the infection, which naturally attacks all the members of the family and the older members of the family, and Mr. Keogh were earning a money.

"The file pictures were taken by the police, and the letter pointed

The upper window at the left is the one through which the bodies were found. The lower left picture is of the boy who was brought to safety, with Mary, 15, holding the youngest. The right picture shows the father, Martin Keogh, who was badly burned but managed to rescue his children. He has been unable to find work since and the older members of the family and Mrs. Keogh were earning a money.

Here's a chance for Edmonton to show that she is a city with a heart.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 28.—Kobers who held up an armored car in St. Paul on Aug. 8, yesterday morning, were captured, tried, and escaped with a packing plant's payroll, have returned the $36,000.

The money was turned in to the trust fund of the Minnesota State Fund, which will reward the law firm that recovered the pay-off.

The insurance companies and the law firm would not discuss details of the transaction.

Pool Members Talk Grain Amendment

CALGARY, Nov. 28.—Lively discussion on the alleged non-observance of the grain pool by the Alberta grain farmers took place at the annual general meeting of the Alberta Grain Association at the Hotel Macdonald yesterday. The press was not admitted and the information came through the courtesy of the staff there, and no resolution was passed and the matter was referred to the executive committee for further consideration.

There is before the association a bill introduced by the government which legalizes the use of grain com-

DOROTHY DIX

"If Love Is to Be Measured by Thrills, Every Marriage Should Have a Divorce Coupon Attached To It," says Dorothy Dix; "But It is the Most Divine Trait in Human Nature That We Have an Especial Tenderness Toward Those Who Need Us."

The fashion in marriages changes nowards as often as the fashion in shirts and ties. Many of us are used to seeing them. At any rate, a young friend of mine who was going to have a wedding next month has told me that she and her fiancee are going to have a "no-divorce" clause in their marriage contract. "It's worse-to-sickens—and-in-health-mill—dwell," she said. "We are going to be very careful about that, but they are going to agree to live together as man and wife as long as any one has."

"It is illegal, absurd, immoral for a man and woman to live together in marriage after they have ceased to love each other," she said.

"But what is married love?" I asked her. "How can you get married without a chart of your emotions? By what signs and symptoms are you to tell whether your John's affection for you is still at least five feet, or has sunk below normal?"

"If you are going to stay married so long as you think it is in either's tools and talents, I suppose that when you even think of each other, then you are still in love," I said. "It's a good safety. Romance vanishes under the stress of everyday living like mist over water. But if you are still up on sentiment just as you were on a steamship at dinner time."

"It would seem that any one with a grain of intelligence should realize this and be prepared for the stamp comes after marriage, which is nothing but a formalization of the fact that you are still in love. The stamp comes after the artificiality of trying to live and act like the hero and heroine of a three-volume novel. Yet no one does. And especially women can't."

"They expect to go on living at this high tension and to have their husbands to keep on making passionate love to them and pressing bare bodies against them. They expect to have their husbands to be good to themselves, and to go cold and hot at their husband's touch, and when all this emotional pettiness is over, as it is bound to do in time, then they take up the stamp of divorce. This marriage is a failure because they don't get a continuous kick out of it."

"Hence, the shudders of both sexes who have heard of the importance of marriage. Hence, the desire to have a marriage with a different flavor. Hence, the husbands and wives who find that the acts of duty have gone stale and that only status means are left. Hence, the woman being able to idealize their wife and husband after marriage, and the man being able to idealize his wife. Hence, the fierce light that beats upon the heartthrone no pretense is possible. Men and women see each other as they are, with all their faults and virtues, instead of carrying them off in a dream world."

"The truth is that a lot of love goes into the love of husbands and wives as into any other thing. This is based on imagination and conjures up a creature of impossible perfections. The other is a close-up of real life, where very few faults and weaknesses have become dear, since they are his or hers, or him."

"Lovers demand every charm and virtue in each other. They must keep each other vamped up, pampered, and snort and doled up, gay and happy and witty and entertaining. Never a let-down. Never a dull moment."

"Married love does not ask so much. It is not always spine-and-spine. It is a little shabby and run down at the heel and comfortable as an old shoe. The husband and wife who love each other will be more than satisfied. They do not expect to be the object of other's fondling ways. They do not think that either one would take a prize in a beauty contest. They do not expect to be the object of other's admiration and entertainment of each other. They talk, or sit in contented silence, in a companionship that does not need to be matched."

"Therefore, as marriage is a personal picnic, there are some times of stress and strain of misunderstandings; of disappointments; of the clashing of temperaments and so on. If my wife wants to be a good mother, she must be a good wife. If my husband has been times when he or she regretted his or her marriage and would have undone it if it could have been done again."

"They do not expect quite so much respect, but most husbands and wives have the desire to turn and turn what threatened to be a disaster into a victory. They really come to like each other more and more. They do not expect to be the object of other's fondling ways. They do not think that either one would take a prize in a beauty contest. They do not expect to be the object of other's admiration and entertainment of each other. They talk, or sit in contented silence, in a companionship that does not need to be matched."

If my wife wants to be a good mother, she must be a good wife. If my husband has been times when he or she regretted his or her marriage and would have undone it if it could have been done again."

"What are you going to do about all of this?" I asked my young friend. "If your marriage is going to last, you must be a good wife and a good mother. You must be a good wife as long as you are there. Or as long as you are young and beautiful! Or as long as you vouch each other? What is going to be your test of love?"

"As long as we are all-in-all to each other," she replied.

Claims Flag Taken From U.S. Marines

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 28.—A tumult occurred in the chamber of deputies Monday night when Hernan Laborde, president of the United States credit-settled, Herbert Hoover, to Latin America. A member produced a United States flag and said it was captured from United States marines in the battle of Tampico. The flag was presented to the Senate by the House of Representatives.

(Deputy from Tampico, but Mexico is a mere extension of the United States, May 14, near Paseo Real, 45 miles from Tampico, when five United States marines were killed and five wounded.)

"What are you going to do about all of this?" I asked my young friend. "If your marriage is going to last, you must be a good wife and a good mother. You must be a good wife as long as you are there. Or as long as you are young and beautiful! Or as long as you vouch each other? What is going to be your test of love?"

"As long as we are all-in-all to each other," she replied.

RE-FLOOR WITH SEAMAN-KENT HARDWOOD FLOORING

That Finishing Touch

No amount of furniture, however carefully selected, can of itself give a room that "well-furnished" look. It needs the background . . . the atmosphere . . . that only colorful lustrous hardwood can provide.

The floor makes such a difference.

The Best That's Made in Every Grade

'40-- The Danger Age For Most Men

Much Ill Health of Last Year Due to Neglect of Condition First Noticed in Middle Life

With regard to the health of men, the remarkable value of UPATRAX has been proven by the results of the recent study made by Dr. Frank D. Dixons and Dr. Dixons' son, Dr. Frank D. Dixons, who have been testing symptoms in Lancashire, Farns and Cheshire, and have found that men are not only healthy but frequent and burning Urinary Tract Inflammation, Prostatitis, Impotency and Loss of Power at an early age.

This is due to the fact that the men of the British Isles are not as healthy as the men of the United States.

No Agreement With Bracken Government

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 28.—There are no definite plans as yet, said E. W. Beatty, C.P. president of the Canadian Labour Congress, here Friday with regard to the proposed national strike of miners which might be provided from the Peace River district of the Prairie Provinces.

The Canadian National Railways have just reached the decision that the miners' strike will be suspended until Dec. 15, he said.

Beatty said that the miners' strike was called by the Alberta provincial government and that the miners had agreed to do in the districts and we must not expect to see the strike suspended until Dec. 15, he said.

A NEGLECTED BRANCH

Saskatchewan and Manitoba beekeepers divided the prizes on a fifty-fifty basis at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto. A Lethbridge apiarist did not take part in the competition of last year. Otherwise the list of successful competitors does not suggest that there is any such thing as bee-keeping in the province of Alberta. For the reason, no doubt, that there was little Alberta honey on exhibition.

Yet, more than forty years ago bees were being kept successfully at Edmonton, at a time when there were few swarms in Manitoba and probably none in Saskatchewan. Bee-keepers kept the district successfully ever since. But the industry has never attained the dimensions that would be warranted by the results. That is another of the neglected branches of production to which a good many Alberta farmers could turn attention with advantage.

ANOTHER "COUNTY" OPENED UP

On Monday next the National Railways will put into operation a newly constructed line from Asbestos to Bonnyville. This new branch is thirty-eight miles in length, traverses good country in which a considerable amount of development has taken place, and will open up opportunities within easier reach of other suitable areas extending to Cold Lake. Because it is somewhat remote from one of the larger centres and lies relatively close to the border of the province the construction of this line has not aroused the attention it would otherwise have got.

But forty miles of new railway driven into a productive section of Alberta is a matter of great importance to the province, and to the Dominion. A line of that length can give reasonably good accommodation to five or six thousand farmers, with corresponding opportunities for the establishment of towns and the like. It is a matter of concern to all of us that the province's construction of this line has not aroused the attention it would otherwise have got.

It is in line with his duty that the provincial fire commission should conduct an inquiry into the abnormal number of severe fires which have been occurring in recent months. It is equally in order that the public should keep clear of rumors and of any tendency to panic. Facts alone can speak for themselves, and the facts, though not many, will be forthcoming in due course. Meantime the citizens may find reassurance in the evidence that their fire protection is at least as good as it has been in the past. By the way, consider the brigades handling the recent serious outbreaks in a very efficient way. The water pressure has been good. The equipment has stood the strain without a breakdown. There is no occasion for the public to suppose that he is any more liable to be burned out than he has been at any time in the last ten or fifteen years.

The "Load" Talks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

It is not so often that the biggest bugs are the ones that bite the smallest flies. The trump would rather pay for his eggs than venture the housewife's "No."

So picture mine, who have earned my game.

Then I'll wait for the day when I've won.

It won't be clear that I had to be "the load."

I was the weight that dragged you down. I was the one who earned your frown. But if I could have shown more hole in par- ticular, my day would have come.

And the better the day you are

The "load."

I was the weight that dragged you down.

I was the one who earned your frown.

But if I could have shown more hole in particular, my day would have come.

And the better the day you are

The "load."

I was the weight that dragged you down. I was the one who earned your frown. But if I could have shown more hole in particular, my day would have come.

And the better the day you are

Pioneer Miner Dies At Vancouver At 92

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 28.—An old prospector who still searched for the gold creeks of his dreams when ever so many years ago has died in Vancouver in 1887 and entered the grave. John Lobell, aged 92, died yesterday morning after a trip into the Strathcona district, still hoping to find gold.

Lobell had a colorful career. Born at Aylmer, Que., he came to British Columbia in 1871, and became a prospector on a prospecting trip with 31 others. He was lost in the wild waters of the Lillooet, and 12 lost their lives. Undaunted, Lobell made many extended trips into the Cariboo district during the succeeding seven years. In 1886, Lobell went to the Fraser River, where he found a job during the winter months, and in the summer day in the person of John Lobell, aged 29, he started out again to prospect in the interior. He never did go to the Yukon.

JOTS FROM ZOOLOGY

THE SLOTH is one of the most interesting of the tree-dwelling mammals. It lives in the forests of South America and Central America. It lives a very sedentary life, and moves if it cannot move with facility except on the under sides of tree branches. On the upper side it is slow, clumsy, and very clumsy. It feeds on leaves and has a stomach with several chambers.

Quips and Quirks

"You said she, 'my husband is so much better I thought it would be all right to have him long enough to get married.'

"I see," smiled the housewife, "you are keeping her and doing alone, so to speak."

Under his nose, digested indily:

"Are you a friend of the grooms?"

The housewife responded, "No, I am the bride's mother."

The difference between a dumbbell and a bologna is that the bologna can over-shame the bimbola."

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE EMPEROR

Karl Dane and George K. Arthur were in the thirty days when "Brother Love" was filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer as a new co-starring product. No scandal. It will be shown at the Emperor on Friday and Saturday evenings.

The picture is a drama-musical "reform" piece as a satirical base.

Sam Arthur (in relation to George) and George K. Arthur (as Charles F. "Chuck" Reiner) direct.

Starting Thursday which is County Show night, the attraction will be "The Escape." This is the current attraction at the Dreamland.
